

NESICT

Networks, Economic and Social Interaction
and Cultural Transfer in Northern Europe

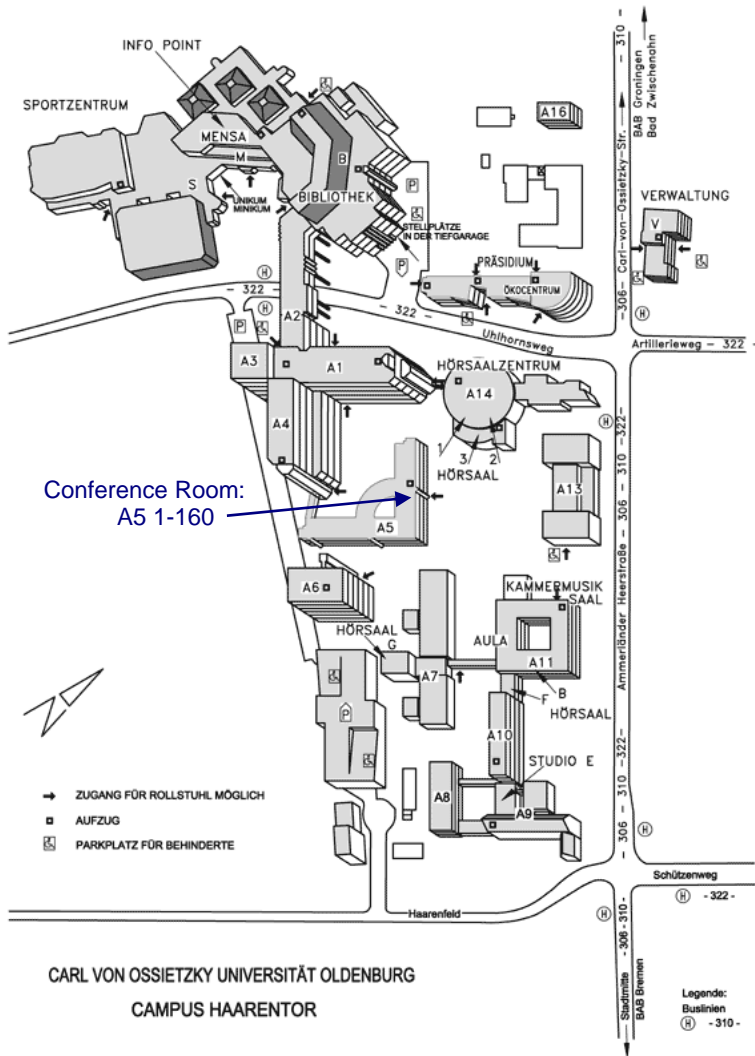

Diasporas as Translocal Societies Conference 1-3 September 2011 at the University of Oldenburg

Organisers:

Prof. Dr. Dagmar Freist (Oldenburg) / Prof. Dr. Susanne
Lachenicht (Bayreuth) / Prof. Dr. Klas Nyberg (Uppsala)

Conference Room:
A5 1-160

CARL VON OSSIETZKY UNIVERSITÄT OLDENBURG
CAMPUS HAARENTOR

Kupferstich 1696 Jan Luiken

The conference is sponsored by:
Handelsbanken's Research Foundations
Deutsche Forschungsgemeinschaft (DFG)

PROGRAMM

1. September 2011

15.00 Welcome Prof. Dr. Dagmar Freist, Prof. Dr. Susanne Lachenicht, Prof. Dr. Klas Nyberg

15.30 Anabaptist and Mennonite networks
Chair: Prof. Dr. Susanne Lachenicht

Prof. Dr. Dagmar Freist (Oldenburg)
Uneasy trust relations: Mennonite networks and cross-cultural trade in early modern northern Europe.

Prof. Dr. Mary Sprunger (Harrisonburg, Virginia)
The Allochthonous and Autochthonous Mennonite Community of Golden Age Amsterdam: Internal and Translocal Networks as a Factor in Prosperity.

18.00 Keynote
Chair: Prof. Dr. Claudia Schnurmann (Hamburg)

Prof. Dr. Hermann Wellenreuther (Göttingen)
Lutheran correspondence networks

20.15 Reception

2. September 2011

10.00 Jewish and Muslim Networks
Chair: Prof. Dr. Dagmar Freist

PD Dr. Margrit Schulte Beerbühl (Düsseldorf)
A closed Jewish network? Nathan Mayer Rothschild and the development of his transnational business relations during the Napoleonic Wars.

Dr. Anna Brismark / Pia Lundqvist (Göteborg)
Jewish networks in 18th and early 19th century Sweden and economic innovation

Prof. Dr. Manuel F. Fernández Chaves / Dr. Rafael Perez (Sevilla)
"Cohesion and weakness of morisco comunitary networks between two exiles: 1568-1614"

13.00 Lunch Break

14.30 Quaker Networks
Chair: Prof. Dr. Dagmar Freist

Dr. Sünne Juterczenka (Rostock)
The challenge of linking two worlds: Transatlantic Quaker connections during the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries.

Prof. Dr. Rosalind J. Beiler (Orlando/FL)
Catalogues of Friends: Correspondence Networks among Quakers and Pietists in Early Modern Europe.

16.30 Coffee Break

17.00 Lutheran and Calvinist Atlantic Networks
Chair: Prof. Dr. Rosalind J. Beiler

Prof. Dr. Susanne Lachenicht (Bayreuth)
The Protestant International, commerce and the Huguenot network in an Atlantic perspective.

Prof. Dr. Klas Nyberg (Uppsala)
Financial Networks, Migration and the Transformation of the Merchant Elite in 18th Century Stockholm.

Dr. Alexander Pyrges (Washington D.C.)
Manufacturing Diaspora? The Salzburg Emigrants in the Transatlantic Communication of their Protestant Sponsors.

20.00 Conference Dinner

3. September 2011

9.30 The Moravians' and Halle Pietists' Networks
Chair: Prof. Dr. Hermann Wellenreuther (Göttingen)

Prof. Dr. Gisela Mettele (Jena)
The global network of the Moravian Brethren in the eighteenth and early nineteenth century.

Prof. Dr. Ulrike Gleixner (Wolfenbüttel)
Creating Space in Europe and India: The Halle Mission Network.

12.00 Wrap up of conference and departure