

University of Opole

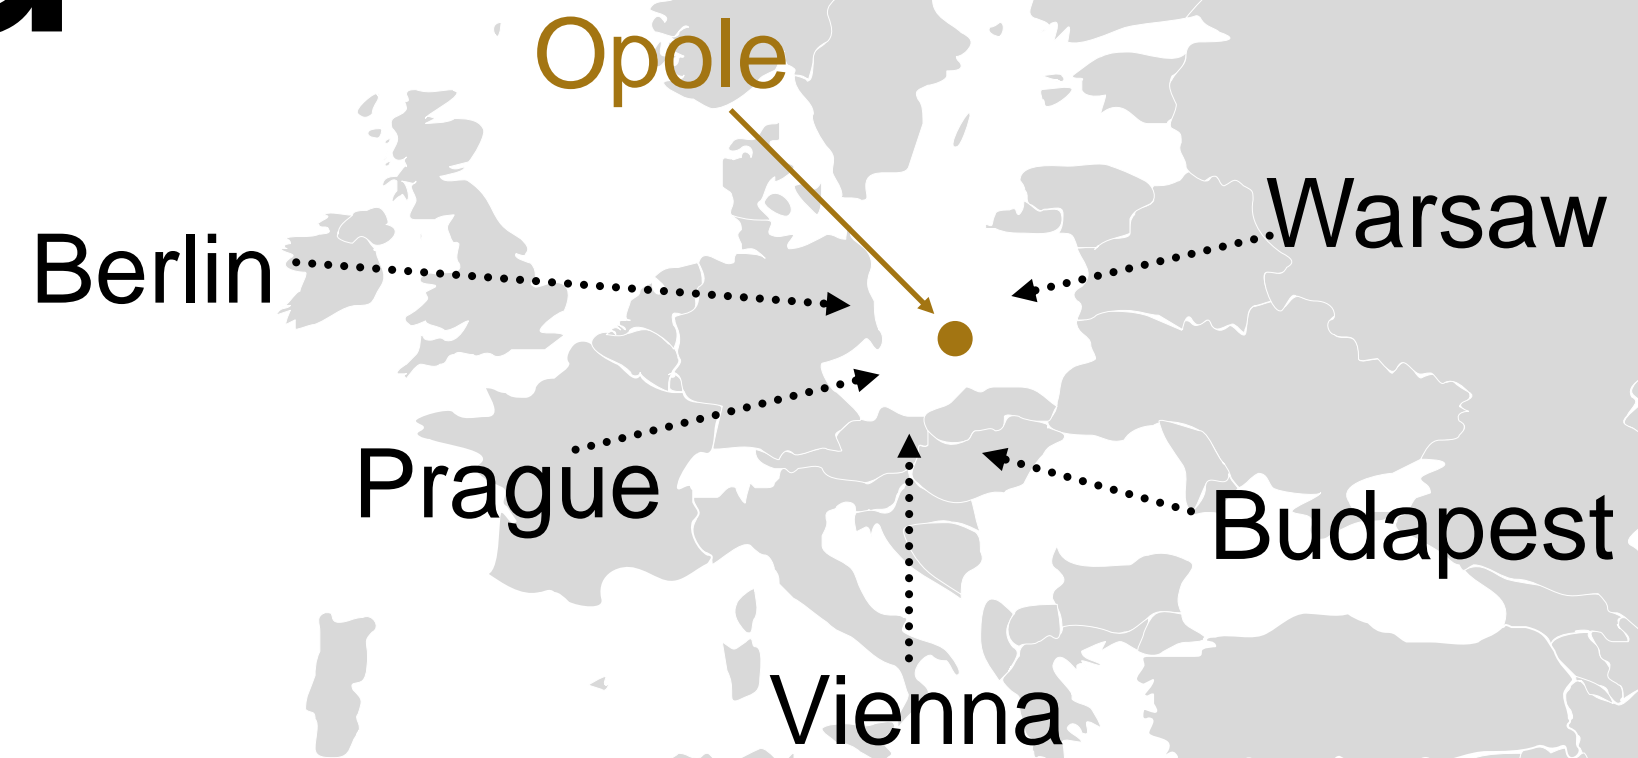

Opole, Poland

Poland

Opole

In the centre of Europe

Poland

In European Union since 2004

In 2004 Poland – as one of 10 new members – entered the European Union, enlarging it to 25 countries.

In the centre of Europe

Due to its location and in the wider geopolitical sense, Poland occupies a central position, connecting western and eastern worlds.

Growing number of foreign investments

Poland attracts more and more foreign investments, hosts numerous international companies, which has been marked by a growing flow of immigrants to the country.

Opole - compact and yet plentiful

Opole is an important academic centre. Having a cosy atmosphere of a historical city, vibrant with life day and night, and being a friendly and safe place to live, it is always full of students.

OPOLSKIE ODYSEJE

zamieszkał
w domu

teraz idzie wyżyć

nie właśnie festiwal

listów nie zjemy

przycięty wy

The distinctive feature of Opole is its location in the multicultural region. Co-existence of four cultures: Polish, Silesian, German and Moravian, not only makes this area interesting for researchers, but also has cultivated a high level of tolerance of locals towards the others.

The town is a perfect starting point for any outing, be it a short cycling, walking or skiing trip, or a longer one to the adjacent European capitals, such as Warsaw, Prague, Vienna or Berlin.

University of Opole

Opole, Poland

Decades of experience

University of Opole was established in 1994 as a result of joining one of the best Polish pedagogical academies – The Higher Pedagogical College (1950–1994), and the Theological-Pastoral Institute in Opole (the Opole branch of the Catholic University in Lublin) established in 1981.

8 Faculties

It began its activity offering courses at four independent departments and now there eight of them:

- Faculty of Chemistry
- Faculty of Social Sciences
- Faculty of Theology
- Faculty of Mathematics, Physics and Computer Science
- Faculty of Economics
- Faculty of Law and Administration
- Faculty of Philology
- Faculty of Natural Sciences and Technology

Introducing medicine

Moreover, there is an ambitious plan to launch the medical faculty in the near future – at the moment the university authorities have already had the construction works started.

